to bring the new world body to New York to the UN's flat rejection of the offer then its abrupt change of course and various tense troubling periods in the years since Racial prejudice and anti Communist passions challenged the young international institution Spies scofflaw diplomats provocative foreign visitors and controversial UN member policy positions tested New Yorkers patience And all the while the UN's growth from its original fifty one member states to 193 by 2017 placed demands on the surrounding metropolis for everything from more office space to more security to better housing and schools for the international community's children As the city worked to accommodate the world body's needs New Yorkers at times grew to resent it a sentiment that provoked more than one New York mayor to be less than hospitable in dealing with the city's international guests Yet with the UN headquarters complex freshly renovated and the city proudly proclaiming that the organization adds nearly 4 billion to the New York economy each year it seems clear the decades old marriage will last whatever the inevitable spats and clashes along the way
