little in common But surprising new research shows that all these events and the myriad failures that dominate headlines every day share similar causes By understanding what lies behind these failures we can design better systems make our teams more productive and transform how we make decisions at work and at home Weaving together cutting edge social science with riveting stories that take us from the frontlines of the Volkswagen scandal to backstage at the Oscars and from deep beneath the Gulf of Mexico to the top of Mount Everest Chris Clearfield and Andr s Tilcsik explain how the increasing complexity of our systems creates conditions ripe for failure and why our brains and teams can t keep up They highlight the paradox of progress Though modern systems have given us new capabilities they ve become vulnerable to surprising meltdowns and even to corruption and misconduct But Meltdown isn t just about failure it s about solutions whether you re managing a team or the chaos of your family s morning routine It reveals why ugly designs make us safer how a five minute exercise can prevent billion dollar catastrophes why teams with fewer experts are better at managing risk and why diversity is one of our best safeguards against failure The result is an eye opening empowering and entirely original book one that will change the way you see our complex world and your own place in it Politics and Change in the Middle East Roy engaging look at contemporary popular culture opening with the provocative idea that this is a day and age of complete exhaustion of ideas images stories and myths Questioning the effects of content recycling in cinema and other media the author further elaborates on the repurposing of cultural junk the reassembling of narratives and myths The thought provoking hypothesis proposed in this research is that we have entered an age of cultural promiscuity By analyzing the mutations of myth making practices and connecting them with larger cultural manifestations the author explains these transformations as integral to the development of a myth illogical imagination Cinematic and mythological representations in mainstream Hollywood films have reached a point of amalgamation with no return which marks the beginning of a fourth age of representations where signs and meanings are manifested in illogical permutations This is more explicit in films that commingle aliens cowboys undead American presidents and zombie nazis joining together in the same narrative ghosts werewolves and vampires aggregating disjoined storylines and historical fake facts all coalesced in an orgy of empty burlesque and infantile masquerades This interdisciplinary research combines cultural studies film criticism art and myth interpretations bringing into the debate multiple concepts from related fields such as critical theory and media criticism The book also opens up to innovative approaches from a wide array of academic disciplines offering researchers students and those fascinated by the transformations happening in contemporary cinema an interpretative tool based on a revised dialectic approach The conclusion is that we are now victims of a zombie semiotics Meaning making in contemporary culture politics and aesthetics is dominated by a process of incessant desecration of significations specific to the total mishmash of representations analyzed here
