Middle English Legends Of Women Saints Middle English Texts:

Middle English Legends of Women Saints Martha G Blalock, Wendy R Larson, Sherry L Reames, 2003-03-01 Middle English Legends of Women Saints presents a collection of saints Lives intended to suggest the diversity of possibilities beneath the supposedly fixed and predictable surfaces of the legends using multiple retellings of the same legend to illustrate that medieval readers and listeners did not just passively receive saints legends but continually and actively appropriated them The collection opens with legends about two royal or supposedly royal women Frideswide and Mary Magdalen and continues with those of three popular virgin martyrs Margaret of Antioch Christina of Tyre and Katherine of Alexandria The final portion of the collection is devoted to St Anne mother of the Virgin Mary The collection includes a number of relatively unknown texts that have not appeared in print since Horstmann s transcriptions in the nineteenth century and a few that have never before been published

Middle English Saints' Legends John Scahill, Margaret Rogerson, 2005 Annotated bibliography covering two centuries of scholarly criticism on the extensive corpus of medieval saints legends with the assistance of Margaret Rogerson Saints legends are being increasingly recognised as one of the most important genres of the middle ages and attract much critical attention This volume surveys the scholarly literature of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries on the extensive Middle English corpus It also provides a conspectus of the genre s history in the Middle English period and its place in the development of the modern discipline of Middle English while both the introduction and the annotations give attention to the problematic boundaries between genres and to the issues involved in separating out texts from their manuscript contexts General studies of the corpus as a whole are covered as well as discussions and editions of individual legends of the various extended cycles of legends and of sermon collections that include hagiographic legends and exempla the volume has been structured so as to provide an overview of the research on major works for example the South English Legendary and St Erkenwald and authors such as Osbern Bokenham John Capgrave William Caxton and John Mirk It includes an Index of Scholars and Critics keyed to the Bibliography an Index of Middle English Texts that covers all works of whatever genre mentioned in the annotations and an Index of Manuscripts that gathers the references to the over 170 manuscripts cited

Saints' Lives in Middle English Collections Anne B Thompson, Robert K Upchurch, E Gordon Whatley, 2005-04-01 This volume is conceived as a complement to another Middle English Texts series text Sherry Reames Middle English Legends of Women Saints This selection is intended to be broadly representative of saints lives in Middle English and of the classic types of hagiographic legend as these were presented to the lay public and less literate clergy of late medieval England

Female Devotion and Textile Imagery in Medieval English Literature Anna McKay, 2024 Uncovers the female voices lived experiences and spiritual insights encoded by the imagery of textiles in the Middle Ages For millennia women have spoken and read through cloth The literature and art of the Middle Ages are replete with images of women working cloth wielding spindles distaffs and needles or sitting at their looms Yet they have been little explored

Drawing upon the burgeoning field of medieval textile studies as well as contemporary theories of gender materiality and eco criticism this study illustrates how textiles provide a hermeneutical alternative to the patriarchally dominated written word It puts forward the argument that women s devotion during this period was a fabricated phenomenon a mode of spirituality and religious exegesis expressed devised and practised through cloth Centred on four icons of female devotion Eve Mary St Veronica and of course Christ the book explores a broad range of narratives from across the rich tapestry of medieval English literature from the fields of Piers Plowman to the late medieval Morte D arthur the devotions of Margery Kempe to the visionary experiences of Julian of Norwich Gervase of Tilbury s fabulous Otia Imperialia to the anchoritic guidance literature of the Middle Ages and the innumerable and oft forgotten lives of Christ prayers legends and miracle tales in between

Power, Identity and Miracles on a Medieval Frontier Catherine Clarke, 2018-04-19 A thriving port a frontier base for the lords of Gower and a multi cultural urban community the south Wales town of Swansea was an important centre in the Middle Ages at a nexus of multiple identities cultural practices and configurations of power As the principal town of the Marcher lordship of Gower and seat of the Marcher lord s rule Swansea was a site of contested authority colonial control and complex interactions and collisions between different cultures languages and traditions Swansea also features in the miracle collection prepared for the canonisation of Thomas Cantilupe Bishop of Hereford d 1282 as the setting for the intriguing case of the hanging and strange revival of the Welsh rebel William Cragh Taking medieval Swansea and Wales as its starting point this volume brings into focus questions of place power identity and belief bringing together inter disciplinary perspectives which span History Literary Studies and Geography Archaeology and engaging with current debates in the fields of medieval frontier studies urban history manuscript studies and hagiography This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Medieval History

Drama and Sermon in Late Medieval England Charlotte Steenbrugge, 2017-11-30 This full length study investigates how sermons and vernacular religious drama worked as media for public learning how they combined this didactic aim with literary exigencies and how plays acquired and reflected authority The interrelation between sermons and vernacular drama formerly assumed to be a close one is addressed from historical connections performative aspects and the portrayal of penance The work demonstrates the subtly different purposes and contents and outlines the unique ways in which they operate within late medieval England

Virgin Whore Emma Maggie Solberg, 2018-12-15 In Virgin Whore Emma Maggie Solberg uncovers a surprisingly prevalent theme in late English medieval literature and culture the celebration of the Virgin Mary s sexuality Although history is narrated as a progressive loss of innocence the Madonna has grown purer with each passing century Looking to a period before the idea of her purity and virginity had ossified Solberg uncovers depictions and interpretations of Mary discernible in jokes and insults icons and rituals prayers and revelations allegories and typologies and in late medieval vernacular biblical drama More unmistakable than any cultural artifact from late medieval England these biblical plays do not exclusively interpret Mary and her virginity as fragile In a collection of plays known as the N Town manuscript Mary is represented not only as virgin and mother but as virgin and promiscuous adulteress dallying with the Trinity the archangel Gabriel and mortals in kaleidoscopic erotic combinations Mary's virginity signifies invulnerability rather than fragility redemption rather than renunciation and merciful license rather than ascetic discipline Taking the ancient slander that Mary conceived Jesus in sin as cause for joyful laughter the N Town plays make a virtue of those accusations through bawdy yet divine comedy she redeems and exalts the crime By revealing the presence of this promiscuous Virgin in early English drama and late medieval literature and culture in dirty jokes told by Boccaccio and Chaucer Malory's Arthurian romances and the double entendres of the allegorical Mystic Hunt of the Unicorn Solberg provides a new understanding of Marian traditions New Medieval Literatures Wendy Scase, Rita Copeland, David Lawton, 2001-06-14 New Medieval Literatures is an annual containing the best new interdisciplinary work in medieval textual cultures Rape Culture and Female Resistance in Late Medieval Literature Sarah Baechle, Carissa M. Harris, Elizaveta Strakhov, 2022-05-03 Centering on the difficult and important subject of medieval rape culture this book brings Middle English and Scots texts into conversation with contemporary discourses on sexual assault and the MeToo movement The book explores the topic in the late medieval lyric genre known as the pastourelle and in related literary works including chivalric romance devotional lyric saints lives and the works of major authors such as Margery Kempe and William Dunbar By engaging issues that are important to feminist activism today the gray areas of sexual consent the enduring myth of false rape allegations and the emancipatory potential of writing about survival this volume demonstrates how the radical terms of the pastourelle might reshape our own thinking about consent agency and survivors speech and help uncover cultural scripts for talking about sexual violence today In addition to embodying the possibilities of medievalist feminist criticism after MeToo Rape Culture and Female Resistance in Late Medieval Literature includes an edition of sixteen Middle English and Middle Scots pastourelles The poems are presented in a critical framework specifically tailored to the undergraduate classroom Along with the editors the contributors to this volume include Lucy M Allen Goss Suzanne M Edwards Mary C Flannery Katharine W Jager Scott David Miller Elizabeth Robertson Courtney E Rydel and Amy N Vines The Oxford History of Life-Writing: Volume 1. The Middle Ages Karen A. Winstead, 2018-04-06 The Oxford History of Life Writing Volume 1 The Middle Ages explores the richness and variety of life writing from late Antiquity to the threshold of the Renaissance During the Middle Ages writers from Bede to Chaucer were thinking about life and experimenting with ways to translate lives their own and others into literature Their subjects included career religious saints celebrities visionaries pilgrims princes philosophers poets and even a few ordinary people They relay life stories not only in chronological narratives but also in debates dialogues visions and letters Many medieval biographers relied on the reader's trust in their authority but some espoused standards of evidence that seem distinctly modern drawing on reliable written sources interviewing eyewitnesses and cross checking their facts wherever possible Others still professed allegiance to evidence but nonetheless freely embellished and invented not only events and dialogue but the sources to support them The first book devoted to life writing in medieval England The Oxford History of Life Writing Volume 1 The Middle Ages covers major life stories in Old and Middle English Latin and French along with such Continental classics as the letters of Abelard and Heloise and the autobiographical Vision of Christine de Pizan In addition to the life stories of historical figures it treats accounts of fictional heroes from Beowulf to King Arthur to Queen Katherine of Alexandria which show medieval authors experimenting with adapting and expanding the conventions of life writing Though Medieval life writings can be challenging to read we encounter in them the antecedents of many of our own diverse biographical forms tabloid lives literary lives brief lives revisionist lives lives of political figures memoirs fictional lives and psychologically oriented accounts that register the inner lives of their subjects
